Freeport is a quintessential small town on the banks of the Allegheny River and Buffalo Creek. In addition to public launches for your boat and kayak, we also have a public dock for you to park while you enjoy the amenities of town. Our local restaurants and coffee shop won't mind dusty trail shoes and provide great food, awesome drinks, and a place to get out of the sun! We also have lovely green spaces along the river and between our restaurants to take a break and enjoy a meal.
