

PITTSBURGH-TO-HARRISBURG MAIN LINE CANAL GREENWAY™

Welcome to Saltsburg!

Thank You to Our Partners

This project was financed in part by a grant from the Community Conservation Partnerships Program, Environmental Stewardship Fund, under the administration of the Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, Bureau of Recreation and Conservation. To learn more about their work, visit dcnr.pa.gov. The project was also funded through a grant from the Colcom Foundation, via the Kiskiminetas Watershed Association. The Kiski-Conemaugh Water Trail is an key component of the Pittsburgh-to-Harrisburg Main Line Canal Greenway™, a 320-mile corridor of heritage sites and hub communities linked by land and water trails. For more information and river trail maps, scan the QR Code.

The town of Saltsburg grew as a result of—and was named for—its role in the salt industry from 1798 to as late as the 1890s. The town is now a hub for the West Penn and Westmoreland Heritage trails and features a Canal Park walkway interpreting the role of the Pennsylvania Main Line Canal in the town's development.
